

IOWA SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF FOOTBALL 2018 CAMP

We get it, because we've been there.
Sometimes it's tricky to play school sports when you are hard of hearing or deaf. Are your hearing aids safe on the field? How do you know the plays if you can't hear them called? Should you be watching your coach for feedback, or keeping your eye on the ball? Together, we'll strategize how to work with your coach and hearing teammates so your focus stays on the field and your abilities shine!

3 p.m., July 15 - Noon, July 19 ■ Iowa School for the Deaf
Students entering 7 - 12 grades

*Non-Iowa residents: call 712.366.3227 before registering.

Click HERE or go to lowaschoolforthe deaf.org for more ISD summer camps!

Choose your way to register:

1. Click HERE.
2. iowaschoolforthe deaf.org
3. Call 712.366.3227.

Register by May 14.

We're communication-friendly!

If you sign, voice or both, this camp is language accessible.

We'll even take you home at the end of the week!

Just $50 for the week
Scholarships available

First-time players

Experienced players

Non-contact camp

Learn and practice running, receiving, passing, blocking and tackling as well as rules of the game. Basic fundamentals of strength and conditioning will be also be covered.

Ready to play the sport you've always loved?
Looking to take your skills to the next level? Our coaching staff knows how to work with both new and experienced players- and at camp, enjoying the game is just as important as refining technique.

Brent Welsch is currently the head football coach at Iowa School for the Deaf, starting his 4th season this fall. He was co-head football coach at Nebraska School for the Deaf 2 years. Welsch was on the football staff at Doane College for three years.

Danny Case will be assistant coach at Iowa School for the Deaf for the 4th year this fall. He played football at ISD 4 years. Case also has 4 years of semi-pro indoor football experience with the Iowa Black Hawks and the Omaha Wildcats.

